	I hope the information helps. Creel Richardson a first cousin gave me this family tree down to our family. He completed his family also. You never notice my grandfather Thomas Creel had a brother William January Creel. I don't know how many children but I do know there were 3 sons all of them settled at Bonifay Fla. or near by. My father Merion A. Creel died I visited one of them about 1927. One is named Terrell I think. It has been such a long time ago I have forgotten. Maybe you have the names of William January Creel's children somewhere in your records. You will notice I don't filled out just the names of the children of Merion A. Creel - and Creel Richardson filled out his family. Most of these are So glad to have met you - Enjoyed our reunion Sincerely

CHARLES DODSON Born about 1649, died probably in 1705, will dated January 11, 1705. Died in Richmond County, Virginia, place of birth not known. Charles Dodson probably descends from Dodsons who were in the Northern Neck area as early as 1650.

Charles Dodson married Anne ?, born about 1654, died after her husband's will was made. He was residing in Richmond County as early as 1683 as he witnessed a deed covering sale of land to John Creele by John Hill and his wife. A deed was also recorded in that year showing the exchange of a cow for one sow sheep, the cow being a gift to his son Thomas from the son's God father.

Thomas Durham Born about 1660, died probably 1715. Will dated June 1, 1715. Married Dorothy ?. Resided in Richmond County, Va.

(See Dodson, Lucas and Allied Families, S. Ernest Lucas, June 1919)

JOHN CREELE The Earliest known record of John Creele is an instrument showing the purchase of 60 acres of land from John Hill and his wife Elizabeth in September, 1693.

" John Hill and Elizabeth, his wife, of the County of Richmond, in Virginia, Planter, to John Creele of the same county, planter, for a valuable consideration, 60 acres in Farnham Parish, Richmond County, adjacent to the path going to Bartholomew Woods and a path going to Walter Webb, a corner tree to George Davenport's and John Hill, "Thence to the head of a small branch issuing out of the main branch till you come to the main swamp, also adjacent land of John Linkhorne" which said sixty acres " of land is part and parcel of a devident of land conteynning eight hundred acres of land patented by John Carpenter, Charles Carpenter and William West and part of it taken up by John Hill."

Signed John X Hill

The relationship between Mary and John Creele is not known.

There is also record of John Creel appearing in Northumberland County Court in "evidence of James Morris Vs. James Thomas", 18 July, 1700.

It is assumed that this John Creel who purchased the 60 acres of land from John Hill is the same John Creel whose will, dated 30 November 1716, and proven May 18, 1720, was recorded in Northumberland County. The will provides for his wife Ann and a son John. Witnesses were Charles Fallin and Susannah R. Creel.

The relationship between John Creel and Susannah R. Creel is not known.

Issue: John Creel and probably others, including Charles, Thomas, George and a daughter who married Thomas Leethman.

(Northumberland County Accord Book, 1700-1729, page 92; Virginia Colonial Abstracts, Northumberland County, 1700-1713, C. 1411; Richmond County, Volume 16, 1692-1704, 11065)

THOMAS LEETHMAN One Thomas Leethman immigrated to Virginia in 1650 being a headright of 100 acres. He could be the father of Thomas Leethman who married a daughter of John Creel or Richmond and Northumberland Virginia.

(See Early Virginia Immigrants, Green)

THOMAS DODSON Born May 15, 1681 in Richmond County, Va. probably in 1740, will dated 17 February, 1739, proven 20 March in Richmond County, Va. Married Mary Durham, daughter of Thomas Dorothy Durham of Richmond County, Va. Mary born June 5, 1680, died after 17 February, 1739.

CHARLES CREEL Presumed to be the son of John Creele of Richmond and Northumberland Counties, Virginia; nothing is known regarding the place or date of Charles' birth. Charles died in 1727, his will dated March 27, 1727, was proved April 25, 1727 in Richmond County, Virginia.

Married Elizabeth ? whose place and date of birth are not known, died 1727 will dated May 15, 1727 and proved May, 1727 in Richmond County, Virginia.

Northumberland County records contain a lease for life from Clement Corbel and his wife, Mary, given in May, 1709 to Charles Creel.

The issue of Charles Creel are as follows:

Per St. Stephens Church Records:
William born April 17, 1712

GEORGE CREEL Presumed to be the son of John Creele of Richmond and Northumberland Counties, Virginia; nothing is known regarding the place or date of either his birth or death.

Issue:

Per St. Stephens Parish Records:
Betty born February 28, 1719

Records in Augusta County, Va. suggest that George may have lived in Augusta County, Virginia (formed 1738). A PATENT was issued to David Cucel for military services (in the Braddock War) 18 February 1734. This David Cucel is most likely a Creel because there is a reference to a George Creel whose son David was said to have been on the particular list on which David Cucel was entered. There is no David Creel on the list. There is also a record of a grant of 400 acres in Augusta County to one Peter Creele, 18 August, 1740.

(Virginia Colonial Abstracts, Northumberland, Fleet and Abstracts, Augusta County, Virginia, Volume II.)

JOHN CREEL Presumed to be the son of John Creele of Richmond and Northumberland Counties, Virginia; nothing is known regarding the place or date of his birth or death.

This John Creel is presumed to be the person referred to in the item regarding Thomas Leatham in the Northumberland Court:

"Motion of Thomas Leethman for and in behalf of his brother-in-law John Cralie, a minor, and John Reason to be cited to the next court for mistreatment of the minor"

Court 22 Feb 1704/5

This could mean that Thomas Leethman married John Cralie's sister or vice versa.

This John Creel is probably the first Creel of record to migrate from the Richmond-Northumberland area to the Stafford-Prince William-Pauquier area. One John Creel is listed on the Stafford County Quit-Rent roll for 1723. On 8 October 1726 a grant or patent of 593 acres in Stafford County was made to John Creale and on 24 August 1731 a patent of 807 acres in Prince William County was made to John Creele. The Stafford County patent was on Bushy Run while the Prince William grant was on Broad Run.

Nothing is known regarding issue of John Creel, however, some members of the Creel family feel he could have been the father of David Creel who in turn was the father of George Creel born 1745 in Prince William County. George Creel and his descendants later moved to the Woods County, West Virginia area.

(See Colonial Families of the Southern States, Hardy; Northern Neck Deeds Books B and D; Virginia Colonial Abstracts, Volume I, Northumberland County, Buvalle)

THOMAS CREEL Presumed to be the son of John Creele of Richmond and Northumberland Counties, Virginia; nothing is known regarding the place or date of his birth. Died 23 April, 1727 in Richmond County, Virginia.

Married Elizabeth ?, who married John Gibson after Thomas Creel's death. Died after 1737.

Thomas Creel purchased land from John Hill in Richmond County, Virginia; the deed and release dated the first and second day of January 1729, and acknowledged by John Hill on the third day of January, 1729. Included in the boundaries "to the Run of the main swamp that divides the land of the said Creel from the land of Charles Bodson.....". This is the land which was sold by Thomas' son Absolon Creel in 1769 to Nicholas Plott. The deed dated 6 January 1769 names Elizabeth as Thomas' wife and child as his son.

Issue:

Absolon - in Amelia County, Virginia in 1769 - no further record.

Thomas - no further record

Joseph - his will proved 11 May 1750 in Lancaster County, Virginia names Absolon and Thomas as his brothers.

According to tradition Absolon Creel and his descendants went south into the Carolinas. Thomas could also have gone South.

DAUGHTER CREEL See John Creel from pages 3 and 4...one Thomas Leethman was listed as the brother-in-law of one John Creel. The wife of this Thomas Leethman may have been a daughter of John Creel of Richmond-Northumberland Counties; or John Creel may have married a sister of Thomas Leethman. Subsequent events suggest an early tie between the Creel and Leethman families.

(See Virginia Colonial Abstracts, Volume I, Northumberland County, Duvall)

THOMAS LEETHMAN See John Creel from pages 3 and 4 and also "Daughter" Creel above; Thomas Leethman is assumed to be the Thomas Leethman listed in the court action regarding his brother-in-law John Creel.

Stafford County Court Records for the period 1721-1730 lists the inventory of the Thomas Leethman estate; the same records also list the inventory account in the Thomas Leethman Estate.

This Thomas is presumed to be the father of Thomas Leethman of Prince William County, Virginia.

Two of these children have later connections with the Creel family. They are Alice and Rhoda who are mentioned in the will of Thomas Dodson as follows:

Rhoda - " I give and bequeath to my daughter Rhody Creel the sum of one shilling"

Alice - " I also give and bequeath to Else Dodson the sum of one shilling".

A reference to John Creel is also included in the will as follows:

"I also give to use of the Separate and Regular Baptist meet in the worship Service of the Lord the meeting house near John Creels mill with three acres of land to be the same more or less."

Witnesses to the will were Daniel Gardner, Heath Gardner, Daniel Gardner and Nathaniel Gardner.

Joshua Dodson Son of Thomas Dodson, see page 2. Born 25 May, 1735 in Richmond County, Virginia. Died around 1800.

Married Ruth?.

Joshua Dodson moved from Richmond County to Prince William County, Virginia before 1760. He is listed as one of the charter members of the Broad Run Baptist Church which was constituted on December 3, 1760. Charter members were as follows:

David Thomas	John Mark
Edmond Hays	Elizabeth Hays
Joshua Dodson	Ruth Dodson
William Stamps	Elizabeth Dodson
Thomas Dodson	Betty Bennett

According to the Church Records, one Pheby Dodson, identified as the daughter of Joshua and Ruth Dodson, was received into the care of the church on 24 April, 1763.

Joshua Dodson later became a Baptist minister.

The exact place of Joshua residence at the time of his death is not known, but his great-grandchildren relate that he visited his sons in Georgia. It is probable that he died in Georgia or one of the other deep South States.

Issue: Charles - probably went to South Carolina or Georgia
Elijah - said to have gone to Kentucky after the Revolutionary War.
Elisha - " " " " " " " " " " " "
Joshua - went to Georgia
Daniel - " " " " " " " " " " " "
Isaac - went to South Carolina, thence to Georgia and then to Alabama.

Isaac Dodson and his descendants have later connections with the Creel family. Also, descendants of Thomas Creel marry into the Stamps and Ballinger family, but it is not known if these families are related to the descendants of Joshua Dodson.

GEORGE DODSON Son of Thomas Dodson, see page 2. Born 31 October, 1702, in Richmond County, Virginia. Died ? in Pittsylvania County, Virginia.

Married on 30 April 1726 to Margaret Dagord, born 30 April, 1708, daughter of Henry Dagord who came to the Virginia Colony from Scotland before 1649.

George Dodson had several children, but only one had later connections with the Creel family, this being Lazarus Dodson.

(See Dodson, Lucas and Allied Families, S. Ernest Lucas, June, 1959)

WILLIAM CREEL Presumed to be the son of Charles Creel, see page 3.
Born April 17, 1712 in Northumberland County, Va.
Died before May 23, 1757 in Prince William County, Virginia.

Married on November 20, 1729 in Richmond County, Virginia to Alice Dodson, daughter of Thomas Dodson, see page 2. Born about 1711, died after 1740.

He as probably married a second time before his death. His widow is listed as Ann Creel in his will.

William Creel and his family probably moved from Richmond County to Prince William County, Virginia shortly after 1740. On 22 and 26
May, 1746 William Creel purchased land from one William Watkins in Prince William County, Virginia, the land being located on the Broad Run. Witnesses to these transactions were Nipron Adams, John Owens, and Joshua Owens. The Old Da Cries Minute Book, 1756-58 indicated that a petition of William Creel was dismissed. In 1753, the Prince William Court directed one Timothy Stamps to pay William Creel the customary witness fee as William Creel had attended court two days as witness of Timothy Stamps.

The will book containing the will of William "Creel" is missing. However, do know that the will was proved by Benjamin Hall and Mary Edwards on May 27, 1757. Note that the Wills of Charles and Elizabeth Creel of Northumberland County, Virginia, see page 3, was witnessed by one John Beale. There were also several persons from the Broad Run area in the Broad Run Baptist Church.

Ann Creel was appointed as executrix of the will of William Creel, but she refused to serve. John Creel, his son, was then appointed to serve as executor of the estate. On May 23, 1757 John Creel was heard with Isaac Foster and Yelverton Peyton.

Yelverton Peyton was born about 1735 in Prince William County, Virginia, died intestate 1794/5 in Stafford County. Married Elizabeth Houch of Stafford County and lived on Broad Run. Moved to Stafford County after the death of his wife's father in 1760.

The Foster family was closely associated with the Leachman family as will be seen from the following information on Thomas Leachman.

Since the will of William Creel cannot be located we are unable to secure a full list of the children of William Creel. In addition to John Creel, it is probable that he had a daughter named Sarah who married John Leachman.

(See North Farnham Parish Records, 1672-1800; Virginia Colonial Abstracts, Northumbria & Fleet; Prince William Court Records, Book 3, page 191; Deed Book of Prince William County, No. "I", pages 79, 81 and 83; Prince William Deed Book, 1753-58, page 24)

THOMAS LEACHMAN Presumed to be the son of Thomas Leachman, page 5. Place and date of birth not known. Died before 22 June, 1752 in Prince William County, Virginia. On 5 March, 1739, Thomas Leachman leased 355 acres on Broad Run from Thomas Hooper.

Robert Foster and Thomas Hagob were appointed executors of the Estate of Thomas Leachman.

This Thomas Leachman is evidently the father of Thomas, Leonard and John Leachman.

Of these children, only John has later connections with the Creel family. Sons Thomas and John were both members of the Broad Run Baptist Church.

Son Thomas sold land on 24 January, 1762 in Prince William County which had been devised to him by will of Thomas Leachman. This land was bounded on one corner by the land of Thomas and Leonard Leachman. Son Thomas' will was dated 14 February, 1799 and probated 5 August 5, 1799. Witnesses were James Foster, Leonard Leachman, Jr., John Williams, Clerk and Isaac Foster.

(See Fauquier County, Virginia Minute Book, 1763-64, pages 263 and 264; Prince William Court Minute Book- 1752-53; Prince William Deed Book P; Prince William Will Book H, page 347)

LAZARUS DODSON Son of George Dodson, see page 7. Born 7 October, 1728 in Richmond County, Va. Died in 1792 or 1799 in Pittsylvania County, Virginia.

Married Alice Dodson, daughter of Thomas Dodson, page 5. Alice born about 1734, died 1792 in Pittsylvania County, Virginia.

Lazarus Dodson was a member of the Broad Run Baptist Church and later a Baptist Minister.

Lazarus and Alice Dodson had several children, however, only one, Margaret Dodson, has a later connection with the Creel family.

(See Dodson, Lucas and Allied Families, W. Ernest Lucas, June, 1959; Fauquier County, Virginia, Minute Book, 1763-64, pages 263 and 264.)

JOHN CREEL Son of William Creel, see page 7. Born February 28, 1732 in Prince William County, Virginia. Died in 1788 in Pittsylvania County, Virginia.

Married Rhoda Dodson, daughter of Thomas Dodson, page 5. Rhoda born about 1744 and died after 1799, probably in Pittsylvania County, Virginia.

The earliest record of John Creel is when he acted as executor for his father's estate in 1757.

On December 4, 1762, John Creel and his wife, Rhoda, were among those added to the rolls of the Broad Run Baptist Church. This addition on the day after the church had been constituted included the following persons:

Abraham Dodson	Sarah Dodson
Obed Cornwell	Elizabeth Cornwell
Barbary Dodson	Mary Higgins
John Bennett (Betty Bennett's husband)	Ann Edwards
	William Murphy
Joseph Morrison	John Whitein
John Creel	Joseph Dodson
Rhoda Creel	William Davis
Elisha Dodson	John Davis
Eury Davis	Katherine Rhodes
Elizabeth Scurlock	Mary Dodson
Nicholas Owens

The Broad Run Baptist Church is the only church in Virginia which has a complete set of records from its founding to the present time.

The Broad Run Baptist Church members were cited several times for not attending the regular State Church in Hamilton Parish. The Fauquier County, Virginia, Minute Book, 1763-64, contains at least three actions by the grand jury "presenting" various persons for not attending the regular State Church. While all of these may not be members of the Broad Run Baptist Church, there are certainly some familiar names among those listed.

It was not until 1786 that Virginia had complete religious freedom. The procurement of this freedom was one of the three things that Thomas Jefferson wanted to be remembered for and his role in procuring this freedom is acknowledged on this grave marker.

Despite the harrassments the Broad Run Church continued to function. The first meeting house was 36 by 24 feet in size and was built in 1762. One acre of land on Bakers Branch was donated to the church by Joseph Dodson, sealed and delivered in presence of John Creel, Thomas Dodson and James Shackelford, at a court held in Fauquier County, 23 September, 1765.

Religion apparently played a big role in the lives of John and Rhoda Creel; John becoming a Baptist Minister later. Rhoda had four brothers who became ministers of the Gospel; Joshua (Born about 1736) who settled in Georgia; William (born about 1738) who settled in Iredell County, North Carolina; George (born about 1740) and Jesse (born 22 November, 1752) who settled in the Eastmanville Valley, Tennessee. A sister of Rhoda, one Alice Dodson, married a cousin, Lazarus Dodson, who was a Minister of the Gospel in Pittsylvania County, Virginia. An uncle, Joshua Dodson, was also a Baptist Minister. It is probable that all were members of Broad Run Baptist Church at one time.

About 1765 a large number of the members of the Broad Run Baptist Church moved from the Prince William-Fauquier area to Halifax County, Virginia. Pittsylvania County was formed from Halifax County in 1766. About this time John Creel and Rosannah (Rhoda), his wife, sold 150 acres of land on the Broad Run to Alexander Campbell, 10 December, 1765. When Alexander Campbell gave the land to his son, Colin Campbell, in 1798, it was described as "....land...bounded by William Creel's purchase from William Watkins....".

The land sold by John Creel was in Prince William County while the Broad Run Baptist Church was located in the Fauquier County portion of the Broad Run community. The original land purchased by William Creel from William Watkins was bounded as follows: "beginning at the white oak in Carter's line...to a pine on the side of the mountain..to a chestnut on the head of a branch...down the side of the branch to Carter's line..." "...said tract lying and joining the upper tract of Colonel Carter's Broad Run and Bull Run tracts..."

John Creel then obtained a patent for 400 acres of land in Halifax County, Virginia, 10 September, 1767. The first record of land transactions in Pittsylvania County are dated 25 August, 1769.

John Creel is best remembered for his religious ministry.

Comple's History of the Rise and Progress of the Baptist in Virginia, Beale's Edition of 1894, page 332, relates:

"The church (Birch Creek) was planted by the labors of Rev. John Creel, a Regular Baptist preacher who about 1765 moved from Fauquier County into these parts. In 1770 the church was constituted according to the mode of the Regular Baptists, under the name of Birch Creek, and in the same year joined the Kentuckian Association.

Of John Creel, their first pastor and planter of the church, it is said that "he was a most amiable man and a very successful preacher. His talents, tho not conspicuous, were solid, and being occupied with his five gained other five. He was universally loved by all descriptions of people. At about fifty two years of age, while assisting in the raising of a house, he was accidentally, killed by a falling log. Time and chance happeneth to all men."

History of Pittsylvania County, M. C. Clement, 1929:

Page 111: "The oldest Baptist church in the county which has continued in active congregation until today is the Kentuck, or Mill church, as it was first known. This church was organized by John Creel, a Regular Baptist who in 1765 had moved from Fauquier County down into Pittsylvania." "In 1806, " a slave named Adam, the property of the late John Creel, Deceased," was emancipated by John Creel, Jr., John Shelton and Abiel Wilson, who were probably fulfilling the last wish of the aged pastor. The Kentuck Church building today is a handsome structure and there is a large and active membership..."

Page 161: "The early settlers usually brought books along his household effects...books were mentioned in the following early inventories.. Isaac Dodson...John Creel..."

Page 178: "A list of Tithes Taken by Theop'l Lacy, 10 June 1767.

...John Creel, Lavarus Dodson, Thos Dodson list, negroes Peter, Adam, Joseph, Dinah, Sall, Winny, Lucy and Rors...Geo Dodson..."

John Creel died without a will. His estate was appraised on 4 January, 1783:

"A true statement of the lands and mill of John Creel, deceased, together with a valuation thereof, and the manner of division thereof, drawn up and agreed to by Rosanna, Administratrix, and John Creel in behalf of Thomas Creel, Micajah Creel, John Creel, William Creel for himself and for Elijah Creel as Security, John Shelton, Randall Petty and Roda Creel, legates of said Creel deceased as followeth, to wit, Rosanna Creel, Administratrix, to have that tract called Boulton's tract, containing one hundred and sixty acres more or less, at one pound per acre; John Creel to have that tract called the Entry tract, containing eithty acres more or less, at eight shillings per acre. Micaiah to have that tract called Hughes tract...William Creel to have eleven acres....most convenient to Griss mill...John Shelton to have....."

Little is known about the children of John and Rosanna (Rhoda) Creel except Thomas Creel. He and his descendants will be listed in detail in later passages.

John Creel - married Margaret Dodson, daughter of Rev. Hazzard Dodson, see page 8, on April 17, 1797 in Pittsylvania County, Virginia. Margaret was born about 1764. It is probable or possible that John was previously married before his union with Margaret as she was about 33 years of age at the time of the marriage. The final land transaction in Pittsylvania County attributed to this John Creel is dated in 1805 after which his line is lost. No record of issue.

Micajah Creel - The final land transaction in Pittsylvania County attributed to Micajah is dated in 1804 after which his line is lost. No record of marriage or issue.

William Creel - No record of marriage or issue; William was located in Rockingham County, North Carolina in 1804 after which his line is lost.

A William Creel was located in Davidson County, Tennessee in 1820 and another in Barnwell County, South Carolina in 1839, but it is not known if these are the same as the William, son of Rev. John Creel of Pittsylvania County, Virginia.

Elijah Creel - Married 3 January, 1803 to Nancy Ragland, daughter of Gideon Ragland, in Pittsylvania County, Virginia.

Gideon Ragland, father of Nancy Ragland, is thought to be the son of Gideon Ragland, who in turn was the son of Evan Ragland, who in turn was the son of Evan Ragland of New Kent County, Virginia. This Evan Ragland of New Kent County is thought to have been the progenitor of the Virginia Raglands who settled mainly in New Kent, Hanover and Henrico Counties.

The final land transaction in Pittsylvania County attributed to Elijah Creel is dated 1808. In 1811 Elijah purchased land in the adjoining Halifax County. Here his line is lost. No record of issue. DEED SHOWS ELIJAH CREEL IN HARDIN

Died before the war -

JOHNATHAN WAS 10 WHEN THEY MOVED TO BIBB COUNTY ALA.

In about 1837 Polly Creel and several of her children moved to Bibb County, Alabama, joining Joshua Creel and his family there. It would appear that all of the living children of John and Polly made this move excepting William and George.

IT APPEARS THAT JOHNATHAN STAYED IN AL. HE WAS ABOUT 23

After 1850, Polly Creel decided to return to Georgia to "her people" there. It is not known whether she returned to the Balchers or to the Creels remaining in Georgia. Her son, Newton, accompanied her on this trip. During the trip, Polly tired of riding in the wagon and alighted to walk along behind the wagon. She slipped on pine needles in the road and fell breaking her hip. She never recovered from this fall and was never able to walk again. The date and place of her death is not known.

According to the 1820 Jasper County, Georgia, census, John Creel was "engaged in agriculture".

(See Family Bible of John and Polly Creel, 1820 Jasper County, Georgia Census; Depositions of Jesse M. Creel and J. Anly Creel, Jefferson County, Alabama; 1850 Bibb County, Alabama Census)

MARY CREEL Daughter of Thomas Creel, See Page 15. Born 1790 in North Carolina. Died after 1850, probably in Bibb County, Alabama.

(See 1850 Bibb County, Alabama Census, Bibb County, Alabama Court Records)

JOSHUA Creel: Son of Thomas Creel, see page 15. Born 1792, place of birth unknown. Died September 20, 1833 in Bibb County, Alabama.

Married Ruth Dodson in about 1813 in Georgia. Ruth, the daughter of Isaac Dodson, see page 15, was born on 10 January 1793 in South Carolina, died 15 August, 1873 in Jefferson County, Alabama. Buried in New Zion Hill Cemetery, sometimes called County Line Cemetery, in North Jefferson County, Alabama.

Joshua Creel was a justice of the peace in Bibb County, Alabama, migrating to that county before Alabama was admitted to the Union in 1819. Joshua migrated to Bibb County, Alabama around 1815 with Isaac Dodson, see page 15, and others of the Dodson family.

WILLIAM CREEL Son of Thomas Creel, see page 15. Born 1802 in Georgia. Died about 1880 at Days Gap in Walker County, Alabama.

Married Sarah ? in Georgia. Sarah born 1 January 1797 in South Carolina. Died 11 April, 1876 in Jefferson County, Alabama, buried in New Zion Hill (County Line) Cemetery, North Jefferson County, Alabama.

William was a farmer, also a Justice of the Peace in Bibb County, Alabama. William and his family moved from Georgia to Bibb County, Alabama in about 1837 with other members of the Creel family. Part of this Bibb County Creels lived in the same general area in Bibb County, Alabama, about two and one half miles northwest of Bolina.

In about 1870 William and his wife came to Jefferson County from Bibb County and lived with their son, Thomas Jefferson Creel. After Sarah died the entire family moved to Oklawaha, Walker County, Alabama, where they were living when William died.

The relationship between William Creel and his wife Sinah and the Lorna Moor and her children is not known, however, the age of Lorna would make her a prime prospect for being a daughter of Thomas Creel, see page 15. Whatever the relationship it is known that Thomas Jefferson Creel, son of William Creel, later married Heseckiah Moor, daughter of Lorna Moor.

(See Bibb County, Alabama Marriage Records; Bibb County, Alabama Court Records; 1840 and 1850 Bibb County, Alabama Census; New Zion Hill (County Line) Cemetery, North Jefferson County, Alabama; Letters of A. B. Creel, Birmingham, Alabama)

Phoebe Creel Daughter of Thomas Creel, see page 15. Born 1804 in Georgia, died 4 July, 1869 in Bibb County, Alabama.

Married in July, 1826 in Georgia to Eli Hughes who was born 1803 in South Carolina, died after 1860, probably in Bibb County, Alabama. The ancestry of Eli Hughes is not known, however, it is interesting to note that one Edward Hughes was listed in the "presentments" of the Fauquier County Grand Jury on 26 May, 1763 citing him for not attending the Hamilton Parish Church of that county (see page 10) and one Rebecca Hughes was listed immediately following the name of John Creel on the 1782 Census-tax list for Pittsylvania County, Virginia.

Eli Hughes and his wife, Phoebe, migrated from Georgia to Alabama in the late 1830's with other members of the Creel family.

Dear Jim,

Thanks for not losing patience with me. Thanks also for your letter. I too, am a night person. It seems the only time I have to myself is after midnight (which it is now). My husband is a very regimented person & I just the opposite. I sort of floundered around from thing to thing, hoping one day to catch up but I never do.

Last week, on the way back from Allen's neurologist in Tallahassee, we stopped in Brooks Co. & once again, see the old Mc Mullen ante bellum house, built 1840. Allen's ggg grandfather, James, built the house. It still has the original French wallpaper. I am a nut about history. I have been interested in German history since an early age, even before I knew about Jimin. We have been in the Stein area of Ger. many times, not knowing my German origin. It is an area called Swabia. Einstein & ~~Rommel~~ Rommel were Swabians and many many more famous people. Most of the Creels that I have known are very blonde, blue-eyed, heavy set, big boned people. I fit the picture! Pure German Aryan.

Enclosed a sketch you asked for. I have family group sheets I'll give out & send later. I can fill in dates, etc. then. Most of the children's names came from census records after 1850.

Again thanks

I've lost my pen again in bed. I just wanted to add that the reeds in my line seem rather lack lustre. I know the War Between the States & the depression had ~~to~~ their effect on the pecuniary side. Most stayed on the land and tried to stick it out farming tired, worn out land. My mother's family was greatly deprived in money & education because her father, William Green Creel, evidently was a first class jack ass and left Victoria with 5 small children to fend for themselves - ~~to~~ They went to work at a very early age in mediocre jobs because their schooling was scant. He wandered down to Fla, Fort Walton area, married again & had 2 children - a son & daughter. Lynn Weston, in Louisirole, Ala. is his dau. I only saw him once in 1942 when he was down on his luck & my mother saw him for about 5 min. I promptly kicked him out - M -

THE NAME AND FAMILY OF CREEL

The surname CREEL is of somewhat uncertain origin. According to some family historians, the Creels originated in Scotland, in which case the name may have been a corruption of the Scottish Craill, which is believed to be a shortened form of Craighill and to be derived from the residence of its first bearers at a place of that name in Scotland. The literal meaning of Craighill is "the rocky mound". However, the Scotch and North English word creel means "wicker basket", and a creelman was one who carried such a basket. This suggests another possible origin of the name. Of the Scottish family of Craill, John Craill, of Stewartoun, was married in ancient times to Sophia Douglas, of noble lineage.

According to some historians, the ancient French name of Criol, originally a place-name, later took, among other forms, that of Creale or Creal. Of this line it is said that Robert, the youngest son of Robert, County of Eu, France, probably about the beginning of the eleventh century, was granted Criol, near Eu, and took his surname therefrom.

There is also record of a family of the name Creil, which was early established in the ancient province known as the Isle de France. This line resided at Bournezeau and belonged to the landed and noble classes.

While the ancestry of the family in America has never been definitely established, the prevailing belief is that David Creel, the progenitor of most, if not all, who bear the name in this country, was of Scottish birth. One writer says: "Many of the noble sons of Scotland came to America about the first of the eighteenth century, and settled largely in the Middle and Southern Colonies, and their descendants have played important parts in the history of our country. Among these distinguished sons of Scotland, we find David Creel, who settled firstly in Westmoreland County, Va., and later removed to Prince William County, Va." (4)

In all events, the immigrant David was living in Prince William County, Va., as early as the year 1745. In that year he had issue by his wife Mary of a son named David, who settled at Bacon Hall, in Wood County, W.Va., at an early date.

David Creel, son of the immigrant of that name, was married in 1770 to Mary Anthy or Athy, by whom he was the father of Eleanor, Mary, John, George, Thomas, Sarah Ann,

David, Alexander Herbert, James (no further record), and Frances. Of these, the eldest son, John Creel, died unmarried.

George, probably son of David and Mary (née Anthy or Athy), although some historians state that he was the son of George Creel Sr. and grandson of the immigrant David, took a prominent part in the affairs of Church and State. He was married in 1798 to Clara, daughter of John Anthony Buckner, of Wood County, W.Va. To this union were born at least two sons, John Buckner and Bushrod Washington Creel.

Of the last-mentioned brothers, John Buckner Creel had issue by his first wife, Ann W. Kincheloe, of a son named George (died in early manhood) and by his second wife, Permelia A. Jane Saunders, of Battelle or Battle W., Laura M., Charles Pulaski, and John Anthony Buckner Creel. Bushrod Washington Creel also married twice. By his first wife, Alcinda R. Kincheloe, whom he married in 1832, he had ten children, George R., Lucy F., Mary Elizabeth, John B. (died young), Clara Kincheloe, John Alexander, Eleanor Sophia, Hannah Jane, Bushrod Washington, and Elias Wickliffe; and by his second wife, Rebecca Thomas, he had further issue of Henry A., Monroe T., and William H. Creel. The descendants of these lines are numerous.

Thomas, son of David and Mary (née Anthy or Athy), resided at Bacon Hall, in Wood County, and was married in 1804 to Priscilla Phelps, a native of Pennsylvania. He is said to have left progeny, but the names of his children are not apparent from the records.

Dr. David, son of David and Mary (née Anthy or Athy), removed to Parkersburg, W.Va., and was a prominent and influential citizen. Available records do not show the names of his children and descendants.

Alexander Herbert, son of David and Mary (née Anthy or Athy), also made his home at Parkersburg, W.Va. He married Lucy, daughter of George Neale, in 1818 and had issue by her of four children, George La Fayette, Henry Clay, Sarah Elizabeth, and Lucy Alexander Creel.

Of the last-mentioned brothers, George La Fayette died unmarried; while Henry Clay removed to Missouri and settled at Kansas City. By his first wife, Eliza J. Brouse, he was the father of a son named Herbert Brown, who settled in Washington State. His second wife, Virginia Fackler, gave him three sons, Wylie Fackler, George Edward, and Dr. Richard Henry Creel. Of these, the first resided at St. Louis, Mo., the second at Denver, Colo., and the third chiefly in Indiana.

One John Creel, probably descended from one of the before-mentioned lines, was living in Pittsylvania County, Va., as early as the year 1767. Although his exact connection with the immigrant David is not in evidence, it seems probable that he was his son. Possibly, too, he was identical with that John Craile who was listed among the officers of the Virginia Government in 1792.

Harrison Creel, also of the Virginia family, was married toward the end of the eighteenth century to Elizabeth, daughter of William Lear, a soldier of the Revolution. To this union were born nine children, Sophia, Marvin, John, Patsey, Harrison, James, Hannah, Elizabeth, and Jane Creel.

The record of the Creels in America is that of a strong, vital, and energetic race. Members of the family have been outstanding as soldiers, public officials, educators, scientists, and literary men.

Among those of the name who served with the American forces during the Revolutionary War were John Crail (Creel), of Pittsylvania County, Va.; Charles Creal, Creel, or Creall, of Orange County, Va.; James and John Creel or Creal, of Virginia, of whom the latter is thought to have been a resident of Culpeper County; Henry Creell or Crell, of Virginia; Richard and Thomas Crail, of Pennsylvania; Michael Creal, of Pennsylvania; Lazrus Creel, of North Carolina; Thomas Creil, of North Carolina; Joseph Crele, of Michigan; and probably many more as well.

GREAT GREAT GRAND FATHER OF

David, Elisha, George, John, Thomas, James, Charles, Henry, Richard, Michael, Charles, Alexander, and Henry are some of the Christian names favored by the Creels for their male progeny.

Bearers of the name who have been prominent in America in comparatively recent years include the following:

Elisha Creel (b. 1847), of Georgia, farmer.

Salvador Creel (latter nineteenth and early twentieth centuries), of California, rancher.

Heber Mansfield Creel (b. 1856), of Missouri, New York, and North Dakota, soldier, statesman, and founder of the city of Devils Lake, N.D.

George Creel (b. 1876), of Missouri and New York, editor and author.

Richard Henry Creel (b. 1878), of Missouri, New York, Louisiana, California, Washington, D.C., and Indiana, physician and surgeon.

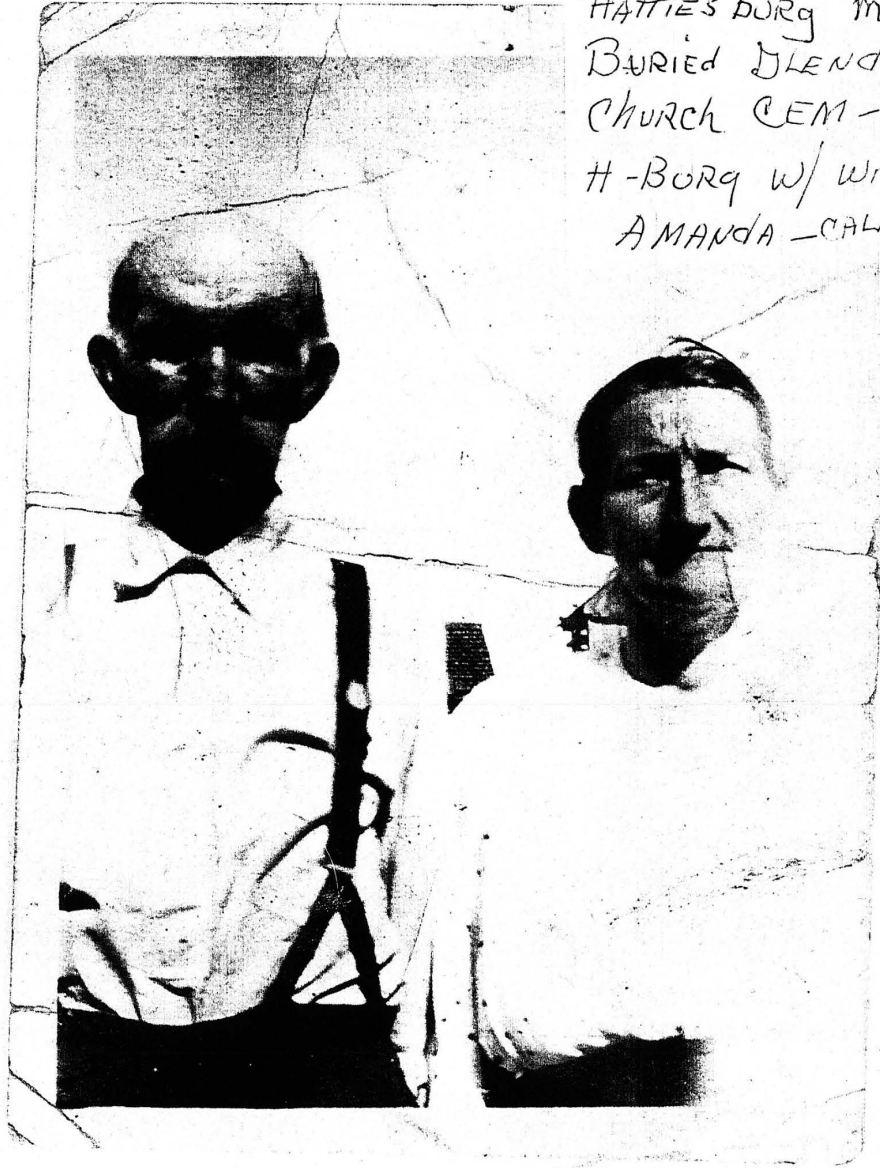

Elisha Orrester Creel (b. 1885), of Alabama, school superintendent.

Luther E. Creel (b. 1883), of Alabama, school superintendent.

Cecil Wills Creel (b. 1889), of Indiana, Utah, and Nevada, agriculturist and entomologist.

Dear Darla:

Thank you for your letter. I have been out of town on business and this is the first time I have had time to sit down and write.

The information you sent me could be helpful. I am sending you two family group sheets with Gency Annah Creel appearing as a child on one and Gency appearing as a spouse on the other. It looks quite possible that Anna Rainwater b 1832 who married John Creel could be the mother of Gency b. 1857. However, you do not have Gency listed as a child on John and Anna's group sheet.

Do you have any other information such as the county in Mississippi where the census came from that you sent? Do you know anyone else who might know something more about my Gency?

I'm sorry that I cannot give you any more information. This is one of my lines that I don't have much information on. I'm sure our lines must be from the same family.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Mr. Jim Steinwinder
P. O. Box 524
Gautier, MS 39553

Dear Jim,

It's been a long time! I hope you are well and still working on the STEINWINDER/STIVENDER family. I also hope that you have figured out Frederick Stivender's children. If you haven't, I have one more to add. Ha!

A couple of weeks ago I had a telephone call from Nova Huchison in Alamogordo, NM. She had seen one of my pedigree charts published by the Orangeburgh Society, I guess. She noticed my Frances Stivender who married Joseph Holman and called.

She has sent me a letter (handwritten copy of the original) written by a relative in 1931 stating that his grandmother Elizabeth Purswell was a "Stinner/Styvander" and had sisters Fannie who married a "Hollman" and Sinnie who married a Creel. (Copy of letter is enclosed.) Nova also sent a copy of the pension application of Gabriel Purswell stating his first wife was Elizabeth Stywinder and died 18 Sept 1863. (Copy of pension application enclosed.)

Gabriel Purswell bought at the estate sale of Frederick Stivender. Sometime later he moved his family to Barbour Co., AL. He located in Barbour with the Creel's. So far, this is all that I have received from Nova. She knew nothing about Frederick Stivender, but had assumed that her Elizabeth was descended somehow from Avehart Stivender. What do you make of this? This letter places both Frances and Elizabeth as daughters of Frederick as well as Senia Creel. Does this throw a monkey wrench in your deductions?

The last that I heard from you, you had written a ^{Stivender}lawyer asking for his opinion on the estate division of Frederick Stivender. Did you hear from him and what did he have to say? What other information have you found? You had just spent two months in the hospital also. I hope everything is o.k. now.

I don't remember a comment from you on the James Collins mystery. I found a James Collins in the Barnwell census who married NANCY. He died and then Nancy (Ann) married John Aldrich. They are in the 1850 census near William P. Sanders (one of Andrea's Frederick sons-in-law) who in the census married a MARY. Joseph Holman and FRANCES are also near. I realize there were a number of James Collins. Could this one have married Nancy Stivender? Were we counting twice--once for James Collins and once for Nancy? Was William P. Sanders a son-in-law? --he married a Mary? Who did Wilson Dyches marry? I didn't find him in the census, but I didn't have an index.

I do appreciate all that you have sent to me. You have done a wonderful job of sorting through this mess. I must confess that I have been remiss in writing as well as working on this line--as well as all others. We have been through the birth of a grandchild and almost raising her fulltime for a year to having her halftime for another year during a messy divorce (my son and his ex-wife) and custody battle to back to having her more than half the time now. I have spent time with her and just haven't had the time to do genealogy and work until recently. I still don't have much time, but try to put in a few hours here and there. My husband retired recently from NASA. I find I have less time during the day!

Again, thanks for what you have done on the Stivenders. You and your work are appreciated. I will look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Mary M. Harper

Dear Mrs Arnold,

Received your letter with Creel information and was very glad to get it. I, together with many others, had assisted Mr. Owens in putting together the books (2) on the Creel Family tree. We were at that time completely stumped on on which Thomas Creel in S. C. (There were 3) was our ancestor and lacked a complete list of his children. I understand now that you have this info and I am so very glad to receive it. We had used census reports, court house records, old bibles, grave yard records, etc.

Since the court houses in S. C. had been burned during the Civil war, we could go

Coal of Arms

Historiography

The Creel Coat of Arms illustrated left was drawn by a heraldic artist from information officially recorded in ancient heraldic archives. Documentation for the Creel Coat of Arms design can be found in Burke's General Armory. Heraldic artists of old developed their own unique language to describe an individual Coat of Arms. In their language, the Arms (shield) are as follows:

"Per fesse or and gu, three annulets counterchanged."

When translated the Arms description is:

"Upper half gold, lower half red, three rings counterchanged."

Family mottos are believed to have originated as battle cries in medieval times. A Motto was not recorded with the Creel Coat of Arms.

Individual surnames originated for the purpose of more specific identification. The four primary sources for second names were: occupation, location, father's name and personal characteristics. The surname Creel appears to be occupational in origin, and is believed to be associated with the English meaning, "one who made or sold creels (a basket for containing a catch of fish)." The supplementary sheet included with this report is designed to give you more information to further your understanding of the origin of names. Different spellings of the same original surname are a common occurrence. Dictionaries of surnames indicate probable spelling variations. The most prominent variations of Creel are Criell, Crielle, Criel, Crielles, Criel and Creels.

Census records available disclose the fact there are approximately 1,700 heads of households in the United States with the old and distinguished Creel name. The United States Census Bureau estimates there are approximately 3.2 persons per household in America today which yields an approximate total of 5,440 people in the United States carrying the Creel name. Although the figure seems relatively low, it does not signify the many important contributions that individuals bearing the Creel name have made to history.

No genealogical representation is intended or implied by this report. It does not represent individual lineage or your family tree.

YOUR NAME AND YOUR COAT OF ARMS -- -- Priceless Gifts From History

Until about 1100 A.D. most people in Europe had only one name (This is still true in some primitive countries today). As the population increased it became awkward to live in a village wherein perhaps 1/3 of the males were named John, another sizable percentage named William, and so forth.

And so, to distinguish one John from another a second name was needed. There were four primary sources for these second names. They were: a man's occupation, his location, his father's name or some peculiar characteristic of his. Here are some examples.

Occupation: The local house builder, food preparer, grain grinder and suit maker would be named respectively: John Carpenter, John Cook, John Miller, and John Taylor.

Location: The John who lived over the hill became known as John Overhill, the one who dwelled near a stream might be dubbed John Brook or perhaps John Atbrook.

Patronymical: (father's name): Many of these surnames can be recognized by the termination---son, such as Williamson, Jackson, etc. Some endings used by other countries to indicate "son" are: Armenian's---ian, Dane's and Norwegian's---sen, Finn's---nen, Greek's---pylos, Spaniard's---ez, and Pole's---wicz. Prefixes denoting "son" are the Welsh---

Ap, the Scot's and Irish---Mac, and the Norman's---Fitz. The Irish O' incidentally denotes grandfather.

Characteristic: An unusually small person might be labeled Small, Short, Little or Lytle. A large man might be named Longfellow, Large, Lang, or Long. Many persons having characteristics of a certain animal would be given the animal's name. Examples: a sly person might be named Fox; a good swimmer, Fish; a quiet man, Dove; etc.

In addition to needing an extra name for identification, one occupational group found it necessary to go a step further. The fighting man: The fighting man of the Middle Ages wore a metal suit of armor for protection. Since this suit of armor included a helmet that completely covered the head, a knight in full battle dress was unrecognizable. To prevent friend from attacking friend during the heat of battle, it became necessary for each knight to somehow identify himself. Many knights accomplished this by painting colorful patterns on their battle shields. These patterns were also woven into cloth surcoats which were worn over a suit of armor. Thus was born the term, "Coat of Arms."

As this practice grew more popular, it became more and more likely that two knights unknown to each other might be using the same insignia. To prevent this, records were kept that granted the right to a particular pattern to a particular knight. His family also shared his right to display these arms. In some instances, these records have been preserved and/or compiled into book form. The records list the family name and an exact description of the "Coat of Arms" granted to that family.

Interest in heraldry is increasing daily. This is especially true among people who have a measure of family pride and who resent attempts of our society to reduce each individual to a series of numbers stored somewhere in a computer. In our matter-of-fact day and age, a "Coat of Arms" is one of the rare devices remaining that can provide an incentive to preserve our heritage. We hope you'll agree that it is much more than just a wall decoration.

If you are interested in a more in-depth study of the subject of this paper, may we suggest you contact the genealogical department of any fair-sized public library. We especially recommend the "Dictionary of American Family Names" published by Harper & Row and also "The Surnames of Scotland" available from the New York Public Library as excellent sources on the meaning of surnames.
